To one who feels he is an atheist or agnostic such an experience seems impossible, but to continue as he is means disaster, especially if he is an alcoholic of the hopeless variety. To be doomed to an alcoholic death or to live on a spiritual basis are not always easy alternatives to face. But it isn't so difficult. About half our original

What Is an agnostic? An agnostic thinks it impossible to know the truth in matters such as God and the future life with which Christianity and other religions are concerned. Or, if not impossible, at least impossible at the present time. Are agnostics atheists? No. An atheist, like a Christian, holds that we can know whether or not there is a God.

title of "agnostic." 4. According to the above, individuals who identify with the label of "Agnostic" should recognize that the term is a modern invention which arose from one individual's identity crisis in a circle of metaphysicians. The one who coined this term identifies himself as a man without a label, analogous

No sir! The word gnostic is the root of agnostic, and that has all to do with religion--not to do with indifference. Occasionally (rarely), the word agnostic is used to describe a non-committal attitude, but it really doesn't fit in your example sentence. To see why you need to look up the definition of gnostic.
